

THE GLOBAL INITIATIVE
AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL
ORGANIZED CRIME

25 million¹

people enslaved worldwide

US $150

billion:

Estimated value of global human trafficking "industry"²

Thousands of everyday products result from forced labour –
from sugar to smart-phones

¹ Alliance 8.7 (2017)

² ILO (2012)

LEAD. LEARN. LIBERATE.

Become a RESPECT Global Business Ambassador.

Human trafficking affects millions of people worldwide.

It also hurts businesses' ability to:

- Manage supply chains
- Source labour ethically
- Comply with labour regulations
- Maintain human rights standards

It also negatively affects how customers, clients, partners, and investors perceive a company.

Business leaders are uniquely positioned to prevent the use of exploitative labour practices and raise awareness among workforces, peers, and consumers.

However, global supply chains sorely need a coordinated strategy to fight human trafficking and modern slavery.

Filling this critical need is RESPECT (Responsible and Ethical Private Sector Coalition against Trafficking), which will assemble key thought leaders, practitioners, and policy makers to identify solutions to public and private sector challenges surrounding modern slavery.

RESPECT Global Business Ambassador Benefits

As a RESPECT Global Business Ambassador, your company will play a leadership role in the fight against human trafficking and modern slavery while gaining significant visibility among key stakeholders and clients.

RESPECT Global Business Ambassadors will benefit from our convening platforms, training materials, best practices, and guiding principles to put this illicit trade out of business – thereby also strengthening their corporate brands and identity in the global marketplace. Benefits to your company and employees include:

Education and Networking

Online assessment tool to help businesses identify risks of human trafficking.

Webinars, summits, and other methods of education on human trafficking in global supply chains.

A peer exchange platform to share knowledge, good practices, and existing strategies for countering human trafficking in supply chains.

Published industry-specific case studies for use by a wide audience.

Interaction among leading businesses that play prominent roles in global business supply chain management, including opportunities of cross-industry exchanges.

Marketing and Corporate Responsibility

Direct links to the public sector, international organisations, academia, and field experts.

Dedicated capacity building support.

Recognition in all webinars, published papers, presentations, and convenings.

The opportunity to engage employees and provide in-kind resources to RESPECT.

Social media attention on the Babson, Global Initiative against Transnational Organized Crime and IOM pages.

Unite against modern slavery & human trafficking.
Join RESPECT.

For more information, please contact secretariat@respect.international Or livia.wagner@globalinitiative.net (Ms. Livia Wagner)

www.respect.international

THE GLOBAL INITIATIVE
AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL
ORGANIZED CRIME

